CLEA/2: Papers of W L Twining as a CLEA Officer, 1973-1994

Extent and form: 8 archive boxes

Biographical note: William Lawrence Twining (b.1934) has had a long and distinguished career in law teaching and has been involved in many projects relating to legal education. He was educated at Charterhouse School, Brasenose College, Oxford and the University of Chicago. He has been Lecturer in Private Law at the University of Khartoum (1958-1961), Senior Lecturer in Law at University College, Dar-es-Salaam (1961-1965), Professor of Jurisprudence at the Queen's University, Belfast (1965-1972) and Professor of Law at the University of Warwick (1972-1982). From 1983-1996 he was the Quain Professor of Jurisprudence at University College London.

Other activities have included membership of the Committee on Legal Education in Northern Ireland (1972-1974), presidency of the SPTL (1978-1979) and of the UK Society for Legal and Social Philosophy (1980-1983), chairmanship of the Bentham Committee (1982-) and of the CLEA (1983-1993). He has edited the Law in Context series and the Jurists' series and has written and edited many publications concerning legal education, including Legal Records in the Commonwealth (joint editor with E Varnden Quick), for the papers of which project see the Commonwealth Legal Records Project (CLRP) collection in the IALS Archives.

Professor William Twining was a CLEA officer as follows:

- Advisory Panel member 1977-1983
- Executive Committee member 1980-1983
- Chairman/President 1983-1990
- Executive Chairman 1990-1994

Scope, content and arrangement: the papers comprise the following files, arranged chronologically:

- Papers as a member of CLEA committees, including ad hoc committees, Advisory Panel (1977-1978) and Executive Committees (1980-1983), 1973-1983.
- Papers as Chairman 1983-1990.
- Papers as Executive Chairman 1990-1994.
- Papers relating to the Commonwealth Human Rights Initiative (CHRI), 1988-1990. CHRI was an area in which the CLEA was involved primarily as a member and supporter. CLEA nominated one member to CHRI and had representatives on the CHRI's Advisory Commission and Steering Committee: William Twining was one of those representatives. CLEA also played a major role in drafting the CHRI report Put our World to Rights.

Archival history: these papers were deposited in the Records of Legal Education Archives in 1996 by Professor Twining.

Related material: Professor Twining also passed copies of various CLEA publications to the Archives. They have been added to the relevant publications series.
